

I would like to voice my opposition to the deregulation of media ownership. Radio deregulation has led to a generic "blah" that does not reflect the unique differences between various regions of the US.